

FOLK 'N' ROLL

HOSTED BY MATT LUCAS
LITTLE BRITAIN

SAT 6TH NOVEMBER

8:00PM

ROSE THEATRE, KINGSTON

£5 ALL AGES

KURRAN AND THE WOLFNOTES
LET'S GET SCIENCE
TINY BIRDS
LITTLE SISTER BLUE
TARA LONDON

Tickets available from
www.rosetheatrekingston.org 0871 230 1552
or from The Rose Theatre

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH
ARTS FESTIVAL

Some of the most exciting up-and-coming
young bands and musicians
raising funds for the 2011
INTERNATIONAL YOUTH
ARTS FESTIVAL.

KURRAN AND THE WOLFNOTES

www.myspace.com/kurranandthewolfnotes

With their current single Your Four Limbs currently receiving rave reviews across the country and receiving regular radio airplay, this is definitely a band to watch out for in the future.

“The new school of Brit-Folk has arrived” - NME

LET'S GET SCIENCE

www.myspace.com/letsgetscience

Following in the footsteps of Larrikin Love, the Thamesbeat scene is back.

“We love Ya!” - Saul, The Metros

TINY BIRDS

www.myspace.com/tinybirdsongs

“This band produces brilliant pictures, words, laughs and all of a sudden, music I really want to hear.” - For Folk Sake

LITTLE SISTER BLUE

www.myspace.com/littlesisterblue

“One of the sweetest voices I've ever heard” - Martha Tilston

TARA LONDON

www.myspace.com/taralondon

WINNER of “Best Female Solo Artist” and “Best Soul/Funk/Blues Artist” at this years ‘The People’s Music Awards’ 2010!

MATT LUCAS

Matt Lucas acclaimed English comedian, screenwriter and actor, best known for his work with David Walliams in Little Britain and as George Doors in Shooting Stars is a patron of the International Youth Arts Festival.

